I would like to express my dismay at the proposal to dissolve the historic seat of Murray. Call it what you will. Residents of Murray see this as a further reduction for the voice of rural electorates.

This is seen simply as a seat grab to the ALP. A northern suburbs electorate will ofcourse be ALP leaning, whereas the melding of Murray to surrounding notionally Liberal electorates effecively reduces the rural voice by one third. I call on the Electoral Commission to hold off on this biased proposal. Many Thanks,
John Bacon, Kyabram.
