I object strongly to not renaming the Denison electorate to Clark.

The reasons that I am objecting about the name change not being accepted so far are:

1. Al Clark was one of our founding fathers, as such it is a national disgrace that he does not have an electorate named after him.
2. The guidelines regarding electorate name changes did not prevent the change from Darwin to Braddon, nor Wilmot to Lyons.
3. The Redistribution committee erred in its claim that there were six submissions in support given the letters from six distinguished Australians included with the Holderness-Roddam submission and the four in response to the initial submissions. There were sixteen submissions in support of the proposal.
4. There were not two submissions against the proposal, only one (submitted twice) by the Hon. Michael Hodgman QC MHA. These submissions were so full of inaccurate claims that they must be disregarded.

Yours sincerely
Wendy Stothers
