Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to you as a voter within the present electorate of North Sydney. I live in Barry Street, Neutral Bay.

I am disappointed to learn that it is proposed to shift me from the North Sydney electorate to the Warringah electorate. I cannot begin to fathom the "logic" here. I live within the council boundaries of North Sydney and feel that I have a closer identity with people adjoining Neutral Bay in Crow's Nest and Milson's Point than with residents of Sydney's northern beaches. Indeed, the municipality of Warringah is well distant beyond the Spit Bridge.

It would be greatly appreciated if you could give consideration to changing your proposed boundaries such that residents of North Sydney are not grouped in with other voters in an electorate with which we share no commonality of identity.

Yours faithfully,

Andrew Desmond
