To whom it may concern,

It was with horror that I learnt of the proposal to redistribute the North Sydney electorate and the reasons for this to occur. I cannot believe that the person/s making this decision have ever lived in the North Sydney Electorate and as such this decision is being made based on false/incorrect evidence.

I live 2 streets away from Cammeray and my children attend school in both Kirribilli and Milsons Point – most of the day to day activities my family is involved in are in the areas in which we are perceived to have less in common with. My family rarely goes across the Spit Bridge let alone Forestville and Brookvale, yet you are telling us that we have more in common with them – this is totally false and misleading. There is also a massive divide in the socio economic characteristics of those suburbs you are looking at merging together.

A decision to make this change will divide communities, not unite them – as such, I strongly object to the redistribution of the North Sydney Electorate.

Yours Sincerely
Mrs Chapple
