To the Australian Electoral Commission.

I am totally dismayed at the announcement to change our electorate's boundaries.

I have lived at 58 Lisgar Street, Merrylands for nearly 45 years.

During this time I have been more than happy with the representation by our local Member of Parliament. He had always looked after the needs of his electorate with dedication and valour.

I would urge the commission to not do this ridiculous thing and leave things the way they are. There is absolutely no reason to make the proposed changes. I believe this would cause undue hardship to our wonderful local member.

Yours sincerely
Marie Fawcett.
