I wish to object to the redistribution of some voters from North Sydney Electorate to Warringah Electorate. My street has always been in the North Sydney Electorate.

In my view, the Military/Spit Rd is a more divisive corridor than the Warringah Freeway & the boundaries prior to the proposed redistribution should be retained.

I disagree that I have more community & regional interest with voters in the Warringah Electorate. My interests & community involvement are located within the North Sydney Council Area where I have had a 10 year association with North Sydney Precinct Committees.

I shop in Crows Nest, Cammeray, Neutral Bay & North Sydney. I walk across St Leonards Park to the Library and to Cammeray. Public Transport takes me directly to the City, Cammeray, Crows Nest and Neutral Bay.
My sporting, environmental & cultural interests are located in this area.

I can see no good reason for this redistribution which appears to divide rather than unite communities including those in the same local government area.
