

Registration as a general postal voter

in Queensland

AEC

Australian Electoral Commission

Who can use this form?

Federal elections: You are eligible to register as a general postal voter if you are already on the electoral roll and you are unable to attend a polling place for one of the reasons listed at Question 6.

Queensland state elections: You are eligible to be a special postal voter if you are already enrolled and can satisfy either A, F, G, H or J of the options listed at Question 6.

General postal voting at federal elections

Electors who are registered as general postal voters will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a federal election, or the issue of writs for a federal referendum.

General postal voting at Queensland state elections

Electors in Queensland who complete this form and satisfy either A, F, G, H or J of the options listed at Question 6 will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the close of nominations for a Queensland state electoral event or the issue of writs for a referendum.

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth register of general postal voters, listing the names and addresses of people registered, is available for public inspection in AEC divisional offices during normal office hours.

Notification

Within three weeks of receiving your form the AEC will confirm your registration. We may seek further information from you and confirm your registration using any of the contact details you provide.
