Australian Electoral Commission

Who can use this form?

You are eligible to register as a general postal voter if you are already on the electoral roll and you are unable to attend a polling place for one of the reasons listed at Question 6.

General postal voting at federal elections

Electors who are registered as general postal voters will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a federal election, or the issue of writs for a federal referendum.

Registered declaration voting at South Australian State elections

Electors who are registered as registered declaration voters will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a State election, or the issue of writs for a State referendum.

The register of declaration voters may be inspected at the office of the Electoral Commission of South Australia during normal office hours.

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth register of general postal voters, listing the names and addresses of people registered, is available for public inspection in AEC divisional offices during normal office hours.

Notification

Within three weeks of receiving your form the AEC will confirm your registration. We may seek further information from you and confirm your registration using any of the contact details you provide.
