

Registration as a general postal voter for federal elections and registration as a general early voter for state elections in Western Australia

AEC
Australian Electoral Commission

Who can use this form?

You are eligible to register as a general postal voter if you are already on the electoral roll and you are unable to attend a polling place for one of the reasons listed at Question 6.

General postal voting at federal elections

Electors who are registered as general postal voters will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a federal election, or the issue of writs for a federal referendum.

General early voting at Western Australian State elections

Electors who are registered as general early voters will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a State election, or the issue of writs for a State referendum.

Persons unable to sign

If you are unable to sign your name or vote in the ordinary way, you can register as a general postal voter using this form.

For Western Australian State elections, it is a requirement that the person signing on behalf of the applicant sign the name of the applicant at Question 7.

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth register of general postal voters, listing the names and addresses of people registered, is available for public inspection in AEC divisional offices during normal office hours.

Notification

Within three weeks of receiving your form the AEC will confirm your registration. We may seek further information from you and confirm your registration using any of the contact details you provide.
