Introduction

The Commonwealth funding and disclosure scheme (the disclosure scheme) established under Part XX of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (Electoral Act), deals with the public funding of federal election campaigns and the disclosure of detailed financial information.

The disclosure scheme was introduced to increase overall transparency and inform the public about the financial dealings of political parties, candidates and others involved in the electoral process.

The disclosure scheme requires political parties, associated entities, significant third parties, Members of the House of Representatives, Senators, third parties, candidates, Senate groups and donors to lodge financial disclosure returns with the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC). The disclosure returns are published on the Transparency Register.

The Guide

This version of the Financial Disclosure Guide for Political Parties (the guide) applies to returns for the 2022-23 financial year. While the guide is intended to assist political parties with meeting their disclosure requirements, it does not address the whole of the Electoral Act. Users should familiarise themselves with the relevant part of the Electoral Act and seek independent legal advice where necessary.

The Electoral Act and all guides published by the AEC are available at www.aec.gov.au. Financial disclosure returns are available for viewing on the Transparency Register after the public release date.

The guide incorporates text boxes to highlight important information. Each text box is prefaced with a symbol. For example:

	A warning symbol indicates information relating to a legal obligation under the Electoral Act.

	An information symbol indicates a useful tip.
---	---

	A timing symbol indicates a due date.
---	---------------------------------------

Annual disclosure

Responsibility for lodging the return

The party agent for the political party is responsible for lodging the political party disclosure return (the return). Where there is no party agent, section 292B of the Electoral Act deems all members of the political party's executive committee to have the legal responsibility for lodging the return.

The appointment and termination of a party agent is explained in the AEC's Party Registration Guide which is available on the AEC website.

Reporting period

The return covers the financial year 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023. For a political party that is registered or is deregistered during the financial year, the return must be provided in relation to the whole financial year.

Under section 314AB of the Electoral Act, a return must be provided by a political party for a financial year regardless of whether there are any transactions to report.

Disclosure threshold

The disclosure threshold for the 2022-23 financial year is for amounts of more than $15,200. This figure is indexed annually.

Due date for lodging returns

The AEC will advise agents of political parties of their obligation to lodge a return following the conclusion of the financial year. Party agents should ensure their contact details with the AEC are current. Failure by the AEC to notify party agents of their obligation to lodge a return does not relieve them of the responsibility to lodge a return under the Electoral Act.

Completed returns, including nil returns must reach the AEC no later than 16 weeks after the end of the financial year.

For the 2022-23 financial year, the due date is 20 October 2023.

The AEC has no legislative discretion to extend this deadline.

Lodging your return

Political parties can prepare and lodge their returns online via the eReturns portal.

To use the eReturns portal you need an account with a unique username and password. Obligation letters to political parties are sent after 1 July of the relevant financial year. New party agents of political parties will have a username and password issued to them with their obligation letter.

The eReturns portal can be accessed from <https://ereturns.aec.gov.au>. This is the easiest way to lodge your return accurately and on time. It is quick, secure, and allows importing/exporting of files which eliminates transcription errors. You can find further information on lodging your return and a step-by-step eReturns Political Party Reference Guide on the AEC website.

Publication of returns

Returns are published on the Transparency Register on the first working day of February. Returns for the 2022-23 financial year will be published on 1 February 2024.

Penalties

The Electoral Act imposes civil penalties, and in some cases, criminal penalties if a person or entity contravenes the requirements of the Electoral Act. The AEC provides support, including this guide, to assist political parties to comply with their disclosure obligations.

The AEC deals with non-compliance as appropriate to the circumstances, including possible referral to the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions.

To review a list of civil and criminal penalties that may apply to political parties under the Electoral Act see Penalties relating to funding and disclosure regulations on the AEC website.

For further information on compliance and enforcement see Compliance and Enforcement on the AEC website.

Political parties may be subject to a compliance review by the AEC to assess the completeness and accuracy of lodged disclosure returns

Important information

Definition of a donation

A donation has the same meaning as a gift under the Electoral Act. A gift is defined as any disposition of property made by a person to another person, being a disposition made without consideration in money or money's worth or with inadequate consideration, and includes the provision of a service (other than volunteer labour) for no consideration or for inadequate consideration, but does not include:

- (a) a payment under Division 3; or
- (b) an annual subscription paid to a political party, to a State branch of a political party or to a division of a State branch of a political party by a person in respect of the person's membership of the party, branch or division; or
- (c) any visit, experience or activity provided for the purposes of a political exchange program.

A gift also includes a 'gift-in-kind' such as the provision of a service (other than volunteer labour) for no consideration (see Part 1b for examples).

Section 287\(1\) of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of a gift.

Foreign donations

Political parties are restricted:

- from receiving gifts of $100 or more where:
 - the recipient knows the donor is a foreign donor; and
 - the recipient knows that the foreign donor intends the gift to be used to incur electoral expenditure, or for the dominant purpose of creating or communicating electoral matter and
- from receiving gifts of $1,000 to the disclosure threshold without obtaining a written affirmation that the donor is not a foreign donor; and
- from receiving gifts equal to or above the disclosure threshold without obtaining written affirmation and appropriate information to establish that the donor is not a foreign donor.

If a political party receives a donation from a foreign donor in contravention of the restrictions in the Electoral Act, the Electoral Act provides six weeks from the gift being made for it, or an equivalent amount, to be returned to the donor or transferred to the Commonwealth.

A foreign donor is a person or entity who does not have a connection with Australia, such as a person who is not an Australian citizen or an entity that does not have significant business presence in Australia.

The Factsheet on Foreign Donations contains further information and is available on the AEC website.

Section 287AA of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of a foreign donor.
Sections 302D and 302F of the Electoral Act restrict political parties from receiving gifts from foreign donors.

Anti-avoidance provisions

The Electoral Act prohibits schemes to avoid foreign donations restrictions. The anti-avoidance provisions prohibit schemes for channelling foreign donations via a relevant person or entity to:

- members of the House of Representatives
- Senators
- political entities
- significant third parties
- associated entities; or
- third parties.

It is an offence under section 302H of the Electoral Act to establish arrangements to avoid foreign donations restrictions. The Electoral Commissioner can issue a written notice if:

- a relevant person or entity (alone or with others) enters into, begins to carry out or carries out a scheme;
- there are reasonable grounds to conclude the relevant person did so for the sole or dominant purpose of avoiding foreign donation restrictions; and
- the scheme involved donation splitting, conduit corporations or any other unspecified avoidance scheme; and
- the scheme avoids the application of a foreign donation restriction.

A person or entity who commits an offence may be subject to civil or criminal penalties.

Section 302H of the Electoral Act prohibits schemes to avoid foreign donations restrictions.

Winding-up of a donor company

A company liquidator may take action to recover a gift from a political party that exceeds the disclosure threshold ($15,200 in 2022-23), which was made by a company that is wound up within one year of the gift being made.

Section 306B of the Electoral Act allows a company liquidator to recover a gift over the disclosure threshold.

Electoral matter and electoral expenditure

Electoral expenditure is expenditure incurred for the dominant purpose of creating or communicating electoral matter. Electoral matter is matter communicated or intended to be communicated for the dominant purpose of influencing the way electors vote in a federal election.

Further information can be found in the Factsheet on Electoral Matter and Electoral Expenditure available on the AEC website.

Section 287AB of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of electoral expenditure, and section 4AA of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of electoral matter.

Federal accounts

The Electoral Act provides immunities from state and territory electoral laws for donors, gift recipients and the agents of gift recipients in relation to the offering, seeking, giving, receipt, retention and use of gifts expressly for federal purposes.

A federal purpose means the purpose of incurring electoral expenditure, or creating or communicating electoral matter.

Immunities from state and territory electoral disclosure laws are also provided for donors, gift recipients and the agents of gift recipients in relation to the amounts and expenditure.

It is the responsibility of regulated entities to establish and maintain federal accounts for the purpose of dealing with gifts of money that are expressly for federal purposes.

A federal account means an account where:

- (a) The only amounts deposited into the account are amounts to be used only for a federal purpose; and
- (b) The only amounts withdrawn or transferred from the account are amounts:
 - (i) withdrawn or transferred for a federal purpose; or
 - (ii) transferred to another federal account.

Gifts from donors which are expressly given for state or territory electoral purposes, or unconditional gifts that the recipient intends to allocate to state or territory electoral purposes, must not be placed into a federal account.

Refer to the AEC website for further information.

Sections 302CA and 314B of the Electoral Act provide immunities for gifts received for federal purposes.

Related bodies corporate

The Electoral Act deems related bodies corporate to be the same entity. Related bodies corporate has the same meaning under the Electoral Act as defined in section 50 of the Corporations Act 2001.

The parent company of the group, therefore, should lodge under its name a return consolidated across the entire group and list in this part of the return the names of all related bodies corporate.

Section 287\(6\) of the Electoral Act deems related bodies corporate to be the same entity.

Receipts and debts from a representative or a person acting on behalf of a principal

Care must be exercised to ensure that disclosure is made of the correct person or organisation. A gift made by a person from their personal account must be disclosed as having been received from that person. This is regardless of whether that person nominated that the donation was made on behalf of their company and irrespective of whether the person was subsequently reimbursed by the company.

The only exception to this rule is where one person, organisation or other entity is acting as the legal representative of another person or organisation (the principal). The identity of the principal itself, rather than the identity of the agent is to be disclosed, where the amount received from the principal is more than the disclosure threshold.

For example:

- In the case of a payment from a solicitor's trust account, disclosure should be made in relation to the person on whose behalf the payment is made, for example, {name of trust account} on behalf of {name of principal}.
- In the case of an employer passing employee contributions or levies to a political party or associated entity as the agent for the employee, disclosure of the employee, not the employer, must be made.
- In the case of a levy or contribution imposed by a political party on its parliamentary members and collected by way of payroll deductions, disclosure of the member as payee must be made.

The concept of principal and agent is different to situations where someone makes donations to a political party from donations that they have themselves collected, or for which they are later reimbursed. In these situations, the person handing over the donation would be disclosed.

The return

The political party must disclose the following information in the return:

- total receipts — see Part 1a
- value of gifts-in-kind — see Part 1b
- details of receipts greater than the disclosure threshold — see Part 2
- total payments — see Part 3
- total debts — see Part 4
- details of debts greater than the disclosure threshold — see Part 5
- details of discretionary benefits — see Part 6

Note: a person or entity that makes donations to a political party exceeding the disclosure threshold during a financial year is required to lodge an annual donor return. The Financial Disclosure Guide for Annual Donors is available on the AEC website.

Sections 314AB, 314AC and 314AE of the Electoral Act govern the lodgement of annual returns by political parties.

Part 1a: Total receipts for financial year 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023

Part 1a of the return requires disclosure of the total of all amounts (cash and gifts-in-kind) received from external entities by or on behalf of the party.

Note: Total receipts should be reported on a cash basis.

Amounts received include, but are not limited to, the following:

- gifts of money
- gifts-in-kind of services or goods
- membership subscriptions
- loan monies received
- returns on investments
- proceeds from the sale of assets
- public funding provided by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory
- discretionary benefits provided by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory.

Section 314AB\(2\)\(a\)\(i\) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of the total amount received by, or on behalf of, the political party during the financial year.

When determining what transactions need to be included in Part 1a of the return, the following principles should be observed:

- Transactions between the registered federal party and registered state or territory branches are included as these are separate entities for disclosure purposes. For example, money received by a local campaign committee from the federal secretariat is reported as a payment by the federal party and as a receipt by the state branch.
- Transactions by a Senate group whose members are endorsed by the political party and transactions of the campaign committee of a candidate endorsed by the political party, must be included in the political party or the state or territory branch return.
- Transactions by persons acting on behalf of the political party or state or territory branch, including candidates at federal and state elections must be included in the return.

Examples of receipts that are required to be included in Part 1a of the return could be:

- a gift of $16,000 cash from a donor
- a donation of printing of stationery that if purchased commercially would have been priced at $350
- interest on term deposit of $2,755
- loan of $7,000 cash received from a party member
- three separate gifts of $8,000, each of which are received from a person on different days
- a cheque for $400 relating to the sale of office furniture
- two separate donations are received from the same person on different days. One amount is $9,500 and the other is $35,000, both of which are included
- a discretionary grant of $10,000 received from a State, Territory or the Commonwealth.

Disclosure of gross amounts

Total receipts must be disclosed on a gross basis inclusive of goods and services tax (GST) and merchant fees. Further, in calculating the total amount received, individual amounts received must not be netted against amounts paid in relation to the same transaction – each transaction must be reported separately. For example:

- a fundraiser taking $14,000 with costs of $12,750 and a net profit of $1,250 is disclosed as:
 - a receipt of $14,000
 - and a payment of $12,750
- a transaction through American Express for $17,600 of which $16,864 was deposited in the bank account following the merchant deducting their fee should be disclosed as the full amount of $17,600. The amount of $736 should be recorded as a payment. Also note that in this example, funds that are transferred from a bank account to repay a credit card should be eliminated as an internal transfer between accounts held by the political party (see below).

- a deposit of $200 into a third party merchant account (e.g. Eway or PayPal) of which $2.50 was deducted for merchant fees. The full $200 should be recorded as a receipt, and $2.50 as a payment. Also note that where the funds from the third party account have been drawn and banked into the political party's bank account, an elimination would also need to be recorded for receipts internally transferred between accounts to avoid overstating total receipts.
- a receipt of $20,000 subsequently refunded must be disclosed as:
 - a receipt of $20,000
 - and a payment of $20,000.

Transactions not to be reported

Internal transactions must not be reported as they result in double counting of amounts received and so overstate the total receipts of the political party. Examples of internal transactions include:

- transactions between the party and its party units (such as local branches and campaign committees)
- transactions between individual party units within a state or territory
- transfers between a party's bank accounts, for example:
 - a transfer from the party's bank account to a party unit's bank account
 - a transfer between bank accounts both held by the party
 - a transfer from a transaction account to an investment account, such as a term deposit account.

Other transactions that are not to be reported in the return include:

- commercial discounts received in the normal course of business
- volunteer labour, such as persons handing out how-to-vote cards or services provided in a private capacity by individuals who are party members.

Part 1b: Amount calculated to be the value of gifts-in-kind

Part 1b of the return requires disclosure of the amount calculated to be the value of gifts-in-kind, which was included in the total receipts disclosed at Part 1a.

Gifts-in-kind may be goods or services received for which no payment (in cash or in kind) or inadequate consideration is made. Inadequate consideration is where the benefits obtained are clearly of a lesser value than the payment made. Inadequate consideration includes discounts provided that are over and above those that would be offered under normal commercial arrangements.

These gifts are to be disclosed for an amount that reflects the fair value. That is, the normal commercial or sale value of the item or service as evidenced by arms-length transaction or comparative quotations or expert assessment.

Examples of gifts-in-kind could be:

- free/discounted services such as legal advice, accounting services or web and IT services
- wages or salaries (including on-costs) incurred by an employer whose employee works for the party during normal working hours while continuing to receive salary or wages from the employer (but not if the employee takes paid leave to work for the party)
- free/discounted use of premises or equipment and facilities
- free use of a vehicle, or free fuel or servicing of a vehicle
- free/discounted time or production services by a broadcaster (except time provided by the ABC or SBS specifically for political broadcasting)
- free/discounted advertising by a publisher or advertising production service
- free air travel or the free use of a private aircraft
- loans provided interest free, or at rates that are less than those available in the commercial loan market
- free/discounted printing, typesetting or associated services
- free/discounted goods or services (for example, travel, artwork, sports memorabilia or electrical goods) for use in raffles or other fundraising activities
- where a person pays a bill/account owed by the party.

Part 2: Amounts of more than $15,200 received in financial year 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023

Part 2 of the return requires disclosure of the details of amounts received greater than the disclosure threshold ($15,200 in 2022-23).

For each person or entity, the following details must be disclosed:

- full name and address details of the person or organisation from whom the money or gift-in-kind was received
- the sum of amounts received from that person or organisation (details of individual amounts received from the same source that are less than the disclosure threshold are not required to be disclosed)
- whether the receipt is a 'donation' or 'other receipt'.

Note: An 'other receipt' is a receipt that does not meet the definition of a donation (see 'definition of a donation' above).

Section 314AC of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of details of amounts received greater than the disclosure threshold.

Examples of amounts received that are required to be disclosed at Part 2 of the return could be:

- funds relating to a loan of $50,000 received from a financial institution
- funds relating to a loan of $20,000 received from a non-financial institution
- a distribution of $18,000 from a trust which was paid into the bank account
- a non-monetary gift valued at $16,000 relating to commercial premises provided to the political party rent free. The market rent for the commercial premises is valued at $16,000
- election funding of $60,000 received from the Australian Electoral Commission
- GST refund of $20,000
- two separate donations are received from the same person. One amount is $9,500 and the other is $35,000.
 - the $35,000 is disclosed in Part 2 as it is more than the disclosure threshold
 - the $9,500 is not required to be disclosed in Part 2 as it is less than the disclosure threshold.

A political party should provide additional clarifying information and supporting documentation in situations where disclosure does not provide a clear picture of the underlying transactions. For example, political parties should separately identify bulk receipts such as membership fees, MP levies from state parliaments or union fees that are not required to be disclosed as a receipt above the disclosure threshold when the deposit is made up of several fees under the disclosure threshold or where the receipt of a gift was subsequently returned.

Amounts received from unincorporated associations, trusts or foundations

Where an amount has been received from an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association and the names and addresses of all members of the executive committee of the association must be disclosed.

Where an amount has been received from a trust fund or foundation fund, the name and description of the trust or foundation and the names and addresses of all trustees must be disclosed.

Amounts received as a result of a loan

There are specific record keeping requirements for amounts received as a result of a loan. For loans received from a financial institution (see note below) greater than the disclosure threshold ($15,200 in 2022-23), the name of the financial institution and the sum of all amounts received from the loan must be disclosed.

Note: A financial institution is a bank, credit union, building society or a special service provider registered with the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). An up-to-date list is available from the APRA website.

Section 314AC\(3\)\(ba\) of the Electoral Act requires information to be kept about amounts received as a result of a loan.

Section 306A of the Electoral Act makes it unlawful for loans to be received from a person or entity other than a financial institution unless certain records are kept.

Loans received from a person or entity other than a financial institution

For loans received from a person or entity other than a financial institution greater than the disclosure threshold ($15,200 for 2022-23), the terms and conditions of the loan must be kept and the following particulars (as the case requires):

- for a loan from a registered industrial organisation (other than a financial institution), the:
 - name of the organisation
 - names and addresses of the members of the executive committee (however described) of the organisation
- for a loan from an unincorporated association, the:
 - name of the association
 - names and addresses of the executive committee (however described) of the association
- for a loan paid out of a trust fund or out of the funds of a foundation:
 - the names and addresses of the trustees of the fund or foundation
 - title, name or other description of the trust fund or foundation
- for any other loan, the name and address of the person or organisation that made the loan.

Part 3: Total payments for financial year 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023

Part 3 of the return requires disclosure of the gross total cash payments made by or on behalf of the political party to external entities.

Note: Total payments should be reported on a cash basis. This means not using total expense but instead aggregating total cash payments.

Note: the same rules apply for using gross figures and eliminating internal transfers as explained for the completion of 'total receipts for financial year' at Part 1a of the return.

Amounts paid include, but are not limited to the following:

- salaries
- administrative expenses
- purchase of assets
- electoral expenses
- loan repayments
- bank charges
- merchant service fees on credit/charge cards
- gifts received but subsequently returned or forfeited to the Commonwealth.

Section 314AB\(2\)\(a\)\(ii\) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of the total amount paid by, or on behalf of, the political party during the financial year.

Examples of amounts paid that are required to be included in the calculation of 'total payments' at Part 3 of the return could be:

- loan repayments paid totalling $32,000
- bank charges of $145 incurred
- merchant service fees totalling $3,400.

Part 4: Total debts as at 30 June 2023

Part 4 of the return requires disclosure of the total outstanding amount of all debts incurred by or on behalf of the political party as at the end of the financial year (30 June 2023).

Note: Total debts should be reported on a cash basis.

Debts include, but are not limited to the following:

- loans
- overdrafts
- unpaid accounts.

Section 314AB\(2\)\(a\)\(iii\) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of all debts incurred by or on behalf of the political party.

Examples of debts outstanding could be:

- loan from financial institution with outstanding balance of $36,000
- loan from an associated entity obtained in a previous financial year with outstanding balance of $8,000
- invoices received, but not paid, from a supplier totalling $4,500
- superannuation payable
- GST and PAYG debt to the ATO.

Note: Employee provisions (for example, provision for annual leave) are not considered debts for the purposes of disclosure.

Part 5: Debts of more than $15,200 as at 30 June 2023

Part 5 of the return requires disclosure of the details of all outstanding debts greater than the disclosure threshold ($15,200 in 2022-23) owed to a person or entity as at the last day of the relevant financial year (that is, 30 June 2023 for 2022-23 financial year).

Note: debts that are individually less than the disclosure threshold, but from the same person or entity, must be considered in determining whether the debts exceed the disclosure threshold.

The details required to be disclosed are:

- full name and address details of the person or organisation that the debt is owed to
- the amount that is owed
- whether the debt is to a financial institution or non-financial institution.

Section 314AE\(1\) of the Electoral Act requires disclosure of the details of debts greater than the disclosure threshold.

Examples of debts outstanding that are required to be disclosed at Part 5 of the return could be:

- a debt of $20,000 owed to a party member, comprising two loans of $10,000
- a debt of $16,000 owed to an associated entity which was obtained in a previous financial year
- bank overdraft account balance of $24,300
- an individual amount owing on a credit card totalling $20,750
- invoices received from a supplier totalling $17,400
- a loan from a financial institution with an outstanding balance of $45,000
- two outstanding invoices payable to the same entity with values of $2,000 and $20,000, a total of $22,000 is required to be disclosed
- GST and PAYG debt to the ATO which are above $15,200.

Debts owed to unincorporated associations

Where a debt is owed to an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association, along with the names and addresses of each member of the executive committee of the association must be disclosed.

Debts owed to a trust or foundation

Where a debt is owed to a trust or foundation, the name and description of the trust or foundation, along with the names and addresses of all trustees must be disclosed.

Part 6: Details of discretionary benefits

Part 6 of the return requires disclosure of the details of any discretionary benefits (however described) received by or on behalf of the political party from the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory during the financial year.

Discretionary benefits include:

- grants
- contracts
- other benefits requiring the exercise of discretion by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory.

Discretionary benefits are different to statutory entitlements, which are provided automatically if specified criteria are met, such as election funding and job keeper payments.

The relevant details to be disclosed are the:

- full name of the person or organisation from whom the discretionary benefit was received
- date the discretionary benefit was received
- value or amount of the discretionary benefit.

Section 314AB\(2\)\(b\) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of details of discretionary benefits received.

Incomplete returns

Where a party agent is unable to obtain all the information required to fully complete a return, a Notice of Incomplete Return must be completed and lodged with the Political Party Disclosure Return.

Where it is necessary to submit a Notice of Incomplete Return:

- complete the Political Party Disclosure Return as fully as possible
- complete the Notice of Incomplete Return
- lodge the Notice of Incomplete Return and the incomplete Political Party Disclosure Return with the AEC at the same time.

Note: lodgement of a Notice of Incomplete Return does not relieve the party agent of the responsibility of making reasonable efforts to obtain the information required to complete the return. The AEC may assess whether the lodgement of a Notice of Incomplete Return was used by a party agent to avoid their responsibilities under the Electoral Act.

The Notice of Incomplete Return contains three parts:

Part 1 – requires the full details of the information believed to be missing from the return

Part 2 – requires the:

- reason the particulars listed in Part 1 were unable to be obtained
- details of all attempts made to obtain the missing information

Part 3 – requires:

- full name/s and address details of the person/s believed to possess the missing particulars
- reasons why it is believed this person/s possesses the required information.

Section 318 of the Electoral Act provides for when a person who is required to furnish a return is unable to do so.

Amending returns

A request may be made to, or by the AEC seeking amendment of a return that has been lodged and subsequently found to be incomplete or incorrect.

Amendments to the return require previously submitted amounts to be provided together with the amended amounts. Amendments are processed through eReturns.

Section 319A of the Electoral Act provides for the amendment of returns.

Administration

Date for public inspection of annual returns

Annual returns are made available for public inspection on the first working day of February each year. For 2022-23 annual returns, that date is 1 February 2024.

Returns are available for inspection on the Transparency Register.

Record keeping

Political parties should have adequate financial recording systems and procedures to enable the return, which will be publicly available, to be properly completed. The Electoral Act makes the party agent responsible for record keeping.

All transactions should be supported by source documents recording the details of individual transactions. Examples of source documents are:

- receipts
- tax invoices
- loan documents
- wages records
- bank deposit books and cheque butts
- bank account statements
- credit card statements
- contract and grant agreements.

Source documents should contain information required to complete the return, such as the:

- date of the transaction
- name of the person or organisation from whom a receipt was received
- name of the person or organisation to whom a payment was made
- name and address of the organisation that has provided a loan to the party
- total payment made or amount received
- amount of GST
- merchant fees.

Retention of records

Relevant records, whether formal or informal, must be retained for a minimum of 5 years following the end of the reporting period.

A record must also be kept in accordance with any other requirements as determined by the Electoral Commissioner.

Persons or entities who fail to comply with these requirements are subject to civil penalties.

Section 317 of the Electoral Act provides for the retention of records.

Compliance reviews

The AEC conducts compliance reviews of annual returns lodged by political parties to verify the accuracy and completeness of disclosures.

The AEC will issue a notice to the party agent to request documentation and may hold an interview to discuss the review. A written compliance report will be provided and may include advice to amend the political party's return.

For further information on compliance and enforcement see Compliance and Enforcement on the AEC website.

Section 316\(2A\) of the Electoral Act provides for the conduct of compliance reviews.
