Agency Purpose

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is an independent statutory authority established by the Australian Government to maintain an impartial and independent electoral system for eligible voters through active electoral roll management, efficient delivery of polling services, and targeted education and public awareness programs.

The AEC's values and commitments

The AEC values and commitments are an essential component of our operating environment and frame how AEC staff work. The AEC's focus is on electoral integrity through the values of quality, agility and professionalism.

Locations

The AEC is geographically diverse with a National Office in Canberra, a State Office in each state capital and a Northern Territory Office in Darwin. Each state is divided into electoral divisions (there are 150 across Australia), which may alter in accordance with changes to the distribution of electoral boundaries.

Work Environment

The Division of Corio is located in Geelong. The Divisional Office consists of the Divisional Office Manager (APS 6), the Divisional Office Clerk (APS 3) and a part-time Divisional Office Assistant (APS 2) working as a team across the program outcomes. Office Staffing is supplemented by temporary employees as required and is managed remotely by an Operations Manager from the Victorian State Office located in Melbourne.

The AEC is committed to the APS values of being impartial, committed to service, accountable, respectful and ethical.

Job Summary

The position is a full-time ongoing position.

As a member of a small team in the Divisional Office, the Divisional Office Clerk's primary role is to assist with the planning and preparation for electoral events, undertake a diverse range of electoral activities; maintenance of the Commonwealth electoral roll and assisting with public information. The APS 3 is responsible for the planning and preparation of a number of key projects during an electoral event and for leading a team of staff to deliver these projects effectively.

This position, at the direction of the Divisional Office Manager will assist with other duties as required including Industrial and Fee for Service elections and non-election workloads.

Our Ideal Candidate
