

Electoral enrolment of a prisoner in South Australia

Use this form to • enrol or • change your details on the electoral roll

IMPORTANT — Please read the information on this page before you start to fill in the form

Enrolment and voting

Can you enrol and vote while you are in prison?

If you are in prison, you are eligible to enrol and vote in federal elections if:

- your sentence is less than 3 years, and
- you are an Australian citizen, or a British subject who was on a Commonwealth Electoral Roll on 25 January 1984, and
- you are 18 years of age or older.

You may enrol at 17 but you may not vote until you are 18.

Note: If you were already enrolled when you started serving your sentence of less than 3 years, you are eligible to remain on the electoral roll. By completing this form you are advising us that you are absent from your enrolled address. This will ensure you are not removed from the roll while you are in prison.

You can check whether you are currently enrolled on the Australian Electoral Commission's (AEC) website at www.aec.gov.au or call 13 23 26.

Do you have to enrol and vote?

If you are 18 or over and otherwise eligible (see 'Can you enrol and vote while you are in prison?') it is compulsory to enrol and vote in federal elections and referendums. You may be fined if you do not vote.

You are also eligible to vote in South Australian state elections regardless of the length of your term of imprisonment.

In which electorate can you enrol?

You must provide an address for Commonwealth and State enrolment purposes. The address you provide for Commonwealth purposes can be different to the one you provide for State purposes.

For Commonwealth enrolment only

You must enrol for the electoral area:

- A in which you were last eligible to be enrolled (this will generally be the place where you last lived for at least one month),
- B in which one of your next of kin is currently enrolled if you have not previously been eligible to enrol,
- C in which you were born, if neither of the above apply, or
- D with which you have the closest connection if you were not born in Australia.

(No stamp is needed if posted in Australia.)

For South Australian state enrolment only

- E the address that was your principle place of residence immediately before the commencement of your imprisonment,
- F the address of a new place of residence that you intend to reside at on your release which has been acquired in lieu of the place referred to above, or
- G if E or F do not apply and you have been imprisoned for 2 years or more the address at which you are imprisoned.

What happens when you are released?

After your release you must complete a new enrolment form to advise us of your new address so that we can update the electoral roll. You can get an enrolment form at any Australia Post outlet or at www.aec.gov.au

What happens when you send in your form?

The AEC will verify the details you have provided before updating the electoral roll. Written advice will be sent to you showing your enrolment details.

If you don't receive the advice or if you have any questions relating to your enrolment, you can call the AEC on 13 23 26.
