To whom it may concern,

It is just as well that the Commission tends to ignore the suggestions of self-interested political parties. Labor's proposed McEwen: including both Craigieburn and Doreen, but excluding Mernda (which is moved into Scullin); is, frankly, bizarre. Meanwhile, the Liberals' proposed Hawke is a transparent attempt to engineer a Labor v Greens marginal seat by mashing together the southern halves of the Cities of Darebin and Moreland.

Kind regards,
