Dear Sir/Madam

I wish to express my objection, firstly to the name of Hawke.

Currently, my shire is Moorabool - of which there is a town, river and reservoir of the same name. It is quaint and unbiased.

I strongly object to a Labour government/department forcing former members names on our area. The name should signify the area, not the political sway one may put on the area.

I also object to Bacchus Marsh being clumped with Sunbury and Melton. Both are much larger townships. Bacchus Marsh priorities will get lost to 2 much larger metropolitan towns. Bacchus Marsh should remain in a regional area.

Kind regards

Stewart Jordan
