Dear Committee

I refer to the redistribution in Queensland currently under consideration by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC).

I would like to register my concern with the submission by Christopher Connolly, who has suggested that the seat of Dickson take in the rural community of Kingaroy. As a resident of the Dickson electorate I feel that Kingaroy and the suburban areas of Dickson such as Albany Creek and Strathpine are two distinctly separate communities of interest that do not have similar transport and communication connections.

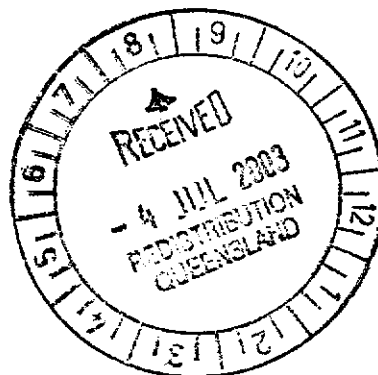

I do not believe there is any advantage in dividing our area into two very different communities of suburban and rural landscapes.

Thank you for providing me with the opportunity to put forward my views on this very important redistribution process.

Yours sincerely,

Daniel Hutchinson
