Committee Members,

I want to lodge my complaint & that of my husband to the suggested redistribution of electorates & the abolition of the seat of Croydon.

The size of the new electorate of Parkes would be impossible to service adequately & a rural voice will be lost.

This move by the electoral commissioner, in blatantly abolishing this country seat, is in his eyes a clear sign that rural communities & indeed the rural industry as a whole is no longer needed in this land.

We all, everyone of us, have a part to play in running this country & we all should have a say & be HEARD. This won't happen if rural seats are abolished.
