Dear Sir

As an elector from the Gwydir Electorate I wish to register my objection to the proposed redistribution of Gwydir into the Parkes Electorate.

This proposal defies all logic as the new district would be so vast that no person could cover it with any efficiency. We in the country have been knocked from pillar to post over the past few years and deserve better. Realising that our population is diminishing, I believe common sense should be allowed to decide which electorate is dissolved. The obvious choice would be to merge two that are close together. This way the elected Member could visit much more easily.

Please reconsider your decision about Gwydir and leave us alone.

Yours faithfully
