Dear Sir,

My husband and I are horrified that the Electoral Commission would even consider joining Parkes and Gwydir into one electorate.

How could any one person be expected to represent the people in this area? It is far too huge and, of course, it takes away another voice in Parliament. Country people deserve better than this and there is no way the one member could service this area.

It could not be expected that we would have good representation if that one person is expected to travel over this huge area and do a good job. Also the various centres are quite different in their commercial and social associations.

We urge you to reconsider this decision and give the people decent representation by leaving ~~the~~ Parkes and Gwydir as they were.

Yours faithfully,

Dawn & Neil Elder
