Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to object to the proposal to abolish the seat of Lyngsett and to merge into the seat of Parkes.

How could 1 person service an area of 379,474 square kilometres and 47% of the state?

By creating such a large electorate the proposal reduces the voice of country people in the Federal Parliament.

It seems much more reasonable to abolish a Sydney seat as I'm sure the problems in most suburbs are exactly the same and most constituents could easily and cheaply access their member.

yours faithfully,
John & Dorothy Clarke
