TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my strong objection to the proposed, electoral redistribution of New South Wales, which would result in the loss of the federal seat of Gwydir.

How one person could be expected to adequately represent an electorate the size of the proposed new seat is beyond me.

I strongly urge you to reconsider your decision in favor of one of the Sydney seats which would result in the establishment of an electorate which could be easily covered by one person.
