Dear Sirs,

Having just received a letter outlining that you wish to abolish the State Seat of Gungahlin, I wish to write in protest - We need all the country seats that we already have, or the city men seats will just walk all over us!!

There is a case for the abolition of a Sydney Electorate!! This would cause far less disruption than abolishing any of the Country Seats!

If you allowed this to happen, the new Electorate would be 4.7% of NSW, which would not be fair. It would be 5th times the size of Tasmania.

By creating such a huge electorate the proposal reduces the voice of Country people in the Federal Parliament, which I would not be fair!!

Yours sincerely,
Gwen Mills (Mrs)

P.S. I am a widow residing in a beautiful retirement home (I'm 5 years old) & I've been a Country dweller all my life & a staunch follower of the National Party & always will be!! I still drive my little car & am with a full mind!!
