Subject The Proposed Electoral Re Distribution

Classification Unclassified

Dear Sir,

I must say I am dumfounded and at a loss to understand how anybody could propose the changes you have proposed with the amalgamation of Gwydir and Parkes.

How 1 seat out of 49 seats can represent 47.3% of New South Wales can be justified just doesn't stack up.

I believe strongly that you should revisit this decision and reconsider the major logistical problems that would come with running this Electorate for starters.

With the vast area that would become the Electorate; it will be very unfair on the constituents who reside within the area.

Amongst a lot of other reasons it means less vote from the "Bush" and more to the city.

I would ask with respect that you reverse this decision.

Yours faithfully,
Jim Christenson
