Dear Sir / Madam

I wish to register a protest about the loss of the seat of Gwydir , I have listed some of the reasons below .

The new seat will be far to big for the M.P. to cover in any sort of meaningful way

One less seat to represent country folk in Parliament

How will one man travel around this huge piece of bush , by plane perhaps ? The seat will cover 47 % of the state .

There are special rules in Tasmania to ensure good representation , this should apply to country NSW in a like fashion .

We are suffering a population decline due to government policy , this can easy change with a change in policy with an incoming new government , will you then move the borders again to give better representation to the bush ? . I think not .

I am sure you will receive a good many protests with other reasons not to loose Gwydir , please read them and do the right thing . It is hard enough living out here in the bush with yet another problem to worry about .

Yours Richard Savage
