Dear Sir or Madam,

RE: PROPOSED REDISTRIBUTION
AND PROBABLE LOSS OF COUNTRY ELECTORATE

I subscribe to all the usual arguments that are voiced by interested persons who are concerned at the diminution of representation in country areas throughout Australia, however I believe that you as Commissioners responsible for drawing new boundaries which is dictated to by the shifting population base, you should be always drawing new boundaries based on the full 10% population differential in those electorates outside the metropolitan area.

Yours sincerely,

A.J. (John) Fulton
