Dear Sirs,

I wish to record that I am against the proposal to turn the seat of Gwydir into Parkes.

Surely Gwydir should be cut into smaller portions, not enlarged.

I know my husband the late Wal Murray, State Parliament, was constantly travelling to give the seat
of Barron its due attention.

No man or woman could possibly represent the enlarged proposal of Parkes.
The concept is grossly unfair to country
people.

Sincerely,
Daphne Murray MRS
