Dear Sirs

I am sorry to ask but what would you at "World Square" know or understand about living "west of the divide"?

We enjoy our life style but for goodness sake give us a little share of the wealth that flows from agriculture or mining from the quipped electorate. If we had that revenue we could run our state whether it was called "Parker" or whatever!

Whether the Nationals or Labour win in this area isn't as important as having a decent representation & there is no way one member of Parliament could adequately cover what is proposed with the suggested axing of Gwydir.

Just amalgamate some Sydney seats & give us a fair go & let the people in this area believe that someone at least knows they exist.

Yours faithfully
(Mrs) Anne Rae
