Dear Sir,

I am writing to register my strong objection to the proposed abolition of the Federal seat of Gwydir, and to incorporate it into a much larger area. This preposterous preposal is a blatant disregard for both the Member and the people of the electorate. How could one person effectively represent the people of such a vast area? It would be most unfair to both the Member and the people who have elected him/her to represent them.

Surely the people in less densely populated areas of the country deserve the same consideration and parliamentary representation as those living in urban areas!

I therefore urge you to reconsider and abandon this preposal to discriminate against country people.

Yours faithfully,

Clare Roach

(Mrs.) Clare Roach
