Dear Sir

I am writing to your committee to register my dismay at the draft boundaries for NSW proposing to abolish the seat of Gwydir and to merge the electorate into the seat of Parkes meaning the loss of a rural seat in the Australian Parliament and the establishment of a Mega Seat covering 47% of the state of NSW.

I feel that if this proposal goes ahead it will be a distinct disadvantage to which ever Party is elected to this seat, be it National or Labour, not to mention making the member that much more inaccessible to the residents/voters in the electorate. Both the sitting members for Gwydir and Parkes have a large enough –some would say too large area to represent as it is.

I would ask that in the interest of the voters and the elected Member you will have another look at this proposal.

Yours truly,

Elaine Fairall
