The Chairman,
Australian Electoral Commission

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to ask you not to abolish the seat of Gwydir and merge the electorate into the seat of Parkes as means one less voice in Parliament for country people, we haven't got many voices now.

I am one of the few soldier settlers left in NSW Wales, a veteran of World War 11, and I think if you were to abolish a seat in Sydney it would be better than taking another country seat.

It seems that the legislative requirements for communities of interest and the size of the electorates to be considered in the redistribution process have been ignored.

By creating such a huge electorate people will have to drive for hours to see their local MP.

Yours Faithfully
A R Macdinty.
