Dear Committee Members,

We are writing to express our concern at the proposal to abolish the seat of Guydir and make Parkes so much bigger.

This, to us, seems a retrograde step as it effectively reduces the voice of country people in the Federal Parliament.

Surely the Committee could look at altering boundaries of some Sydney electorates to achieve the necessary results.

I'm doing so the work load of the members for Parkes & Guydir would be kept to a minimum.

Yours faithfully,
Bruce McKenzie
