Dear Sir,

I am writing to strongly voice my objection to the proposed abolition of the seat of Gywdir. Surely one vote, one value principle must be respected.

I have great difficulty with the decision to remove the seat of Gwydir and feel that the new electorate will be virtually impossible for an elected representative to adequately service.

It is grossly unfair to the democratic rights of the people in the proposed region.

This harshest of boundary decisions is grossly and seriously unfair and totally unnecessary. It is important to keep communities of interest together.

I urge you and your Redistribution Committee for NSW to reconsider this proposal.

Yours faithfully,
