Dear Sir,

Re 2006 Electoral Redistribution

The Seat of Gyoydir

As an old northern boy (Mungindi) I wish to lodge an objection re the proposal to abolish the seat of Gyoydir and merge into the seat of Parkes.

It seems to me 20 years ago by country people in general are getting further behind their city counterparts with all services, and this proposal is another that will reduce the voice of the bush.

If my sons suggested that two area reps at present serving these two electorates could be reduced to one and still provide a reasonable level of service to clients/Community and back a family business viable, I would be of the opinion that they had not learnt much along the way.

Again I object to this proposal and request a complete rethink of the issue

yours faithfully

W. B. McDonald
