Re: Draft Electoral Boundaries of N.S.W.

As a Resident of New South Wales the release of draft boundaries to abolish seat of Guyra to emerge the electorate into the seat of Parkes is a very unacceptable proposal.

Specially when the Commissioner were mindfull of the large State seat of Murrumbidgee Darling who took the opportunity to reduce the size of that electorate. You are only repeating the same situation in another area of our State WHY

The travelling in large electorates would increase tremendously; the travel costs plus extra days of travel. Why do the western region have to suffer? why not emerging smaller electorates where expenses would be saved.

I highly object to the proposal, being a Rational voter.
