equitable & less disruptive

All evidence appears to be that many areas of Cwydir at least are increasing in population due to industries such as coal, ethanol & timber.

It seems that the legislative requirements for communities of interest & the size of the electorates to be considered in the redistribution process have been ignored.

I implore you to reconsider the boundaries for NSW in the fairest possible way.

Yours Sincerely,

Members,
I am disgusted with the recent draft redistribution of boundaries of the NSW electorates. It now appears that Country people will not be fairly represented in Federal politics. It is also most unfair to think that one member could represent effectively people from 47% of NSW.

There is a strong case to abolish a Sydney electorate, not Cwydir. This would indeed be more
