Dear Sir

We the undersigned wish to object to the proposal to abolish the seat of Gwydir for the following reasons.

- (1) By creating Parkes as such a huge electorate it would be impossible to effectively represent country people
- (2) Sydney people are often only 10 minutes from their local members office. Your proposal would mean many hours journey for country people to see their member which would mean a least 3 days from work with accommodation. An expensive exercise. The Legislative requirements of Communities of interest & size of the electorates should be considered in the redistribution process.

Yours faithfully
Margaret Dewe

M.H. Dewe
