Dear Mr Re proposed abolishment of Seat of Gwydir.

As I am most appreciative that the Electoral Commission of NSW is non political, I cannot for the life of me see the Commission's proposed abolishment of Gwydir being of any benefit to the electorate.

To have a new proposed seat of near 400 square kilometers in area is beyond belief. As to how the electorate could be expected to receive service from respective positions on a personal note would be most inconvenient.

The area to cover by a provision would not allow the personal approach required by the constituents.

Should the commission desire to reduce number of seats may I suggest consideration be given to Sydney, Wollongong Newcastle areas

Faithfully
Ken Hedger
