Dear Sir

I am writing to object strongly to the abolition of the seat of Guyra in the proposed new distribution of electoral boundaries in New South Wales.

How on earth could one person be expected to adequately represent such a vast & diverse area covering 47% of N.S.W.

The electorate of Guyra contains some of the most productive country in N.S.W. & with the current expansion in mining seems set to experience a surge in growth & employment opportunities in some areas. In a situation such as this we need, more than ever, the close attention of a local member to oversee & direct this momentum. Actually I feel in the future there is a need for Guyra to not only be maintained, but reduced in size.

So please reconsider this ridiculous proposal & at least maintain the seat of Guyra in its present form.

Yours faithfully
Colin Busley. (C.B. Busley)
