Dear Sir or Madam,

We would like to advise you of our strong objection to the proposed abolition of the seat of Gwydir.

We live in the seat of Gwydir and as country people, are already fed up with the lack of representation we have in Federal Parliament. Your treatment of this matter demonstrates the complete lack of value placed on country voters. How can any MP possibly be expected to give an area as large as the one proposed proper representation?

We request that the draft boundaries be redrawn and you look to the multitude of Sydney seats you could abolish.

Yours faithfully,

Phil & Carol Smith.
