Dear Sir,

We are very strongly opposed to the redistribution of Gwydir.

John Anderson has been doing a wonderful job. We do not want to lose the seat of Gwydir, we feel a change of boundaries will make the area too large for one member to handle. The regional area needs a member to have a powerful voice for rural concerns and look after the bush.

We do not need an area almost half the size of New South Wales that the member cannot service properly he needs to be readily available for the people.

The real issue is the lack of proper political representation for people living in the electorate.

Yours faithfully
J. M. D. A. D. D. D. D.
