Dear Sir/Madame

Thank you for the opportunity to voice our concerns regarding the redistribution of federal boundaries for New South Wales.

The rural seat of Gwydir is already a huge ~~area~~ area for the sitting member. It is already difficult for him to serve his constituents effectively. This would simply make it impossible!

Regional Australia needs an effective voice - voices - in Federal Parliament. It is important that this country does not concentrate all its population and energies into the burgeoning cities and coastal strips.

We should be looking to develop our Rural regions and this ~~more~~ proposed move is definitely in the wrong direction.

The organisation I represent would urge you not to take this path.

Yours sincerely
