I am writing this letter to lodge my objection to the axing of the seat of Greydis, which as you know has been a seat since 1901. To expect one person to cover the seat of Parkes, as is suggested, is quite ridiculous. It seems to me that you have taken the easy way out because of John Anderson's retirement and hoping it will cause less objections. Think again and give the country people a fair go.

Yours faithfully

GW Adams
