Dear Sir/Madam

I wish to lodge my objection to the abolition of the Federal Seat of Gwydir & its amalgamation with the seat of Parkes. It seems absurd that this proposed electorate will cover 47% of the state. How can one representative possibly hope to service the whole of that area to the satisfaction of everyone living there. He/she would need their own private jet or helicopter to cover such vastness, most exhausting!

In the embattled bush, people need to experience visitations by their member to lift their spirits so that they realise that they aren't entirely forgotten by Government, just because they reside in the vast outback.

If you must reduce electorates, do it in Sydney so there is less interruption & loss of representation.

Yours faithfully,

Coreen M. Carter
