RE: Proposed Redistribution in Queensland

As a resident of The Gap in Brisbane since 1995, I am concerned over suggestions the suburb may be split across two federal electoral divisions.

Geographically, The Gap is somewhat separated from the rest of Brisbane by large tracts of bushland on all sides.

This separation gives The Gap a strong sense of identity and local community.

I believe this sense of community would be diminished if The Gap is split in the proposed redistribution.

I understand that The Gap has been in the federal division of Ryan for about 50 years.

I think it preferable that it remain in Ryan.
