I have read some of the submissions in regard to electoral redistribution in Queensland. My concern, as a resident of Cooloola Shire, is that all the major parties seem to consider that it is OK to split Cooloola Shire while at the same time purporting to agree with keeping local government areas intact. I doubt that they are aware that Cooloola Shire tends to get banded from Wide Bay to the Sunshine Coast on one matter or another, or it is left out of considerations altogether. Cooloola community is united and strong, from the Mary Valley to the Cooloola Coast to Gympie and was recently identified as part of the happiest electorate in Australia. Please in your considerations this time keep Cooloola intact in Wide Bay and recognise that its community of interest lies to the north, not the south.
