Dear Sir,

In the name of sanity please don't fool with the electoral boundaries in western Queensland any more. People in this area are flat out keeping up with the number of changes we have to endure. The proposed seat of Wright is lunacy. What community of interest do the people of Winton have with the people of Gladstone? We are all happy with the set up in Maranoa we have bush people representing a bush population & everyone knows how it works. A Gladstone wharfer would not know what a kangaroo with attitude was if it went through the windscreen of his car.

It seems like more of the ever growing number of cushy jobs being held down by people trying to justify their existence by harming the existence of others.
