To Whom It May Concern

I am sending this email to convey my fierce objection to the suggestion that the seat of Reid named for Sir George Reid (-see the biography of W.J. McMinn) an important founding father of Australia be changed. As far as I am concerned, tinkering with our history is not acceptable and Sir George Reid is historically an iconic figure who should remain celebrated, as he is now, in a meaningful, popular record of his contribution to our political history.
