To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you as the great-great grandson of Sir George Reid; former NSW premier, founding father of Australia's federation, and Australia's fourth prime minister.

It has come to my attention that the electorate of REID is to be abolished. I would like to express my animosity at such a decision and to implore that the name REID continues. I believe removal of this name would represent a country that is forgetting the words and names that make up the stories of how Australia came to be. The simple importance of respecting and recognising our forefathers should be remembered and not undervalued. I hope this importance is given the weighting it deserves in making these decisions.

Sincerely,

William Body
