The redistribution committee,

Dear Sir,

I believe there is a review of electorates for the federal redistribution, and the seat of riverina may be scrapped.

Having lived in the riverina for many years I have observed with dissatisfaction the lack of importance the governments place in country electorates, it is as though we do not count in the economy and the structure of Australia.

We are being treated like second class citizens, and to scrap the seat of riverina, or any country for that matter, will make it harder to contact our already busy members. I hope sanity prevails and that distance and isolation be taken into consideration when the decision is made for the redistribution.

Yours sincerely,
John Walker
