Dear Mrs Hull

Re Changes to Electorate Boundaries

I wish to add my voice to the opposition to the proposed changes in Electorate boundaries in the state of New South Wales.

It seems unthinkable that three existing country electorates should be reduced to two, whichever way one might be absorbed by the other two. The current situation already takes in huge distances, and one can only wonder how any Member could effectively represent greater areas than they already do. Country people are already disadvantaged by these distances in relation to closer settled areas of the east coast and of course the densely populated areas of greater Sydney (and maybe Canberra also).

I wholeheartedly support any action you may be able to take on this issue. Keep up the good work and may you long represent our very important region.

Yours faithfully

Grace Hatty
