

Our Vote, Our Future Artwork

Credit

Original artwork by Marcus Lee Design.

This original artwork design was created for the AEC by Marcus Lee to encourage electoral participation and engagement by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

About the artist – Marcus Lee

Born and raised in Darwin NT, Marcus is a descendant of the Karajarri people and is proud of his Aboriginal heritage. Marcus Lee Design is a certified supplier with Supply Nation.

The meaning behind the artwork

The artwork design forms a symbol of Australia created by the merging of human figures representing our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander population of females, males, elders and youth. The warm colours of red and orange reflect upon the Aboriginal peoples, while the cool colours of blue and green reflect upon the Torres Strait Islander peoples. The warm coloured lines and cool dotted rings represent the empowered First Nations peoples connection to land, communities, and future.